Safeguarding & Child Protection Seminar

Grab your opportunity to train with Safeguarding Children's, Ruth Browning.

Thank you to Far North REAP for providing the venue allowing us bring this training to your community.

What will you learn?

- How prevalent child abuse and neglect is in Aotearoa New Zealand.
- How to recognise and confidently respond to signs of abuse and neglect including family violence and sexual violence.
- How to handle disclosures of abuse and neglect including family violence and sexual violence.
- The vital role that a Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy play in keeping children safe.
- Understanding and navigating the challenges which may impede helping a child.
- Relevant legislation and guidance established to protect children.

"The information within the course is really for everyone, no matter what standing in the community, as we all need to keep our generations safe."

"An informative session which left me feeling confident in my new knowledge and able to respond appropriately to relevant situations."
